It's another new year and year three of Stories by Mom. I have been posting new art quite often. It is one of the few things I can do while holding a baby. I am still going to finish Pete. I know it's a long time coming, but that will need a little more focus than doodles on my tablet. Until then I am working on another coloring book. If you are following me on social media, you may have seen my mom, dad, and baby pictures. I am hoping to turn them into a coloring book in time for Mother's and Father's Day. I am half way there. I am also doing a new challenge, Animal Alphabets and that has been great so far. So continue to check in weekly for new art, coloring pages, print, and whatever my mind comes up with and my times allows. I hope you all have a great New Year!
